MUSICAL THEATRE CONCENTRATION

Pre-professional training designed to prepare performers for competitive entry into the field of Musical Theatre. Courses in acting, music and dance are taught by world class faculty while mainstage, studio and student-run productions provide important opportunities for synthesizing classwork and developing a professional work ethic. Musical Theatre students may also seek admittance to the Professional Actor Training Concentration after their freshman year.

AUDITION

Admission to the Musical Theatre Concentration is highly competitive. Those seeking to audition must first submit an audition application and a digital video audition sample. Our faculty will review materials and invite selected applicants for a live audition on campus, usually scheduled for February or March each year. For details visit:
<https://theatredance.ecu.edu/musical-theatre-auditions/>

We strongly encourage high school seniors to check in with our website regularly to obtain the current BFA audition announcement and audition application procedures for each year. Updated information is posted in September of the fall semester for each current academic year.
